The new slate of murals debuting during Art Basel Miami is one of the most anticipated art events of the year. And 2017 does not disappoint with “humanKIND,” featuring 12 new murals created by visionary artists from around the world. As part of this year’s theme, Seth Globepainter from France, Joe Iurato from the States and Leon Keer from Amsterdam, among others, were tapped to create pieces that inspire compassion, humanity and empathy. Production on the uplifting works begins November 26 and runs through December 4, at which time the public is invited to watch the artists in action. See the finish products unveiled on December 7.
